THE WORD OF GOD

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Wisdom 2:12,17-20 Psalm 54:3-4,5,6-8 James 3:16-4:3 Mark 9:30-37

Jesus speaks of his own rejection, torture, and shameful death. True discipleship, he says is concerned not with status but with service to the poor, with justice and peace.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Numbers 11:25-29 Psalm 19:8,10,12-14 James 5:1-6 Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution, and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom. Beware of growing rich while neglecting the rights and needs of others.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Genesis 2:18-24 Psalm 128:1-6 Hebrew 2:9-11 Mark 10:2-16 or 10:2-12

Conjugal love, lived in fidelity to God's original plan, is to be one of the principal manifestations of the kingdom proclaimed by Jesus. Through baptism into Christ, we join with him in having one and the same Father.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In this day and time, we as Catholic Christians need to pray for our country. We are in difficult times economically, politically and morally. We need to pray and put our Christian faith into action.

We should stand for all that is morally right and always defend Christian principles such as truth, honesty, purity and the right to life. We thank God for all the blessings and freedoms we have experienced as a country in the past. We should never take any of these for granted.

We thank God for the rains we have received. These are a true blessing. Let us continue praying for more of this much needed blessing for our area.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH CLEANERS

St. John's Church cleaners for October are: Jo Marie Krupala & Gladys Surman.

GENERATIONS OF FAITH

We had a great time at the Generations of Faith Retreat/VBS! Our next GOF will be Sunday, September 20, 2009 at St. John's Rectory/Religious Education Center immediately after the 9:30 a.m. Mass and should last until about 1:30 p.m. All generations are encouraged to attend. We will be discussing an Introduction to Catholic Social Teachings. Our Sunday Visitor states that, "We are all called to give time, talent and treasures, even through times of change, such as economic downturns or parish consolidations". OSV also recommends the book, "The Catholic Vision for Leading Like Jesus," by Owen Phelps, Ph.D., that shows how being a good steward is intertwined with roles of servant and shepherd. It is important that parents attend this GOF meeting. The general GOF, First Reconciliation, First Communion, and Confirmation guidelines will be presented and discussed. The mandatory Safe Environment education for students and their parents will also be presented in the Technical Center during this GOF program. Any student missing the Safe Environment Program will be required to attend a make-up. Please don't forget to bring your lunch and drinks for your family. We look forward to another exciting program; you won't want to miss the introduction to this year's programs! For questions or more information, please call Dana Daughtry 979-562-2381, Kim Lofland 979-562-2267 or Janis Hrcir 361-596-7525.

THANK YOU

Thank you to Richard & Wilma Schaefer & Henry & Emma Tupa for donating one picnic table at Moravia. There are still 5 tables available at $210 each.
