PASTOR'S DESK:

Fr. Michael & I are having a weight loss contest during Lent, from Ash Wednesday till Holy Saturday. Parishioners (and others) may pledge so much per pound for either or both of us. Whatever is collected will be used for our youth program.

During Lent, we fast and abstain from meat on certain days. But we also fast by the common practice of "giving something up for Lent."

When we give up something-something important, something that functions as either a crutch or a pleasure in our lives-we make a sacrifice. This sacrifice helps us in many ways:

- It is penitential, a way to express sorrow for our sins.
- It teaches us that we don't need those things to be happy. We can do without them and depend, as Jesus teaches us, on God alone for our happiness.
- It is a building-block in learning spiritual self-discipline, preparing us for greater sacrifices we will be called on to make further down the road, in imitation of Jesus.
- It is a way of expressing solidarity, individually and as a whole Church, with the poor of this world, the poor in whom Jesus says we will meet him.

What to give up??

"Sacrifice" is the key word here. Jesus showed us that sacrifice is at the core of authentic love. Some areas that many Catholics focus on in their Lenten sacrifice:

- A type of food
- Television or internet time
- Unnecessary spending or shopping
- Alcohol or caffeine

PRAYER

In prayer, we turn to God, listen to his voice, and let him fill our hearts and guide us. During Lent, our prayer takes on a special tone: we are especially aware of our sins. We are attentive to Jesus, the suffering servant. We join in prayer for candidates and catechumens, and we pray for our own deeper conversion to the Lord.

Many find it helpful to go beyond Sunday Mass and use Lent as a chance to broaden and deepen their spiritual lives:

- Celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Attend Mass during the week
- Read and pray with the Mass readings for each day
- Pray the Liturgy of the Hours
- Participate in a Bible study or other parish offering
- Use one of the many Catholic daily devotionals available
- Pray the Stations of the Cross, either individually or in the parish
- Pray the rosary
- Spend time in Eucharistic Adoration
- Do some extra spiritual reading

Almsgiving

Being mindful of the poor is not an option for Christians. In fact, Jesus tells us that when we feed the hungry, visit the imprisoned, and clothe the naked, we are encountering him.

So, along with fasting and praying, almsgiving has been a traditional Lenten practice. Jesus poured his life out for others. As his disciples, we are called to do the same in everyday lives, as well as in the extra steps we take outside our ordinary lives and routines.

Keeping the Corporal Works of Mercy in mind is helpful as we consider our Lenten almsgiving:

- Feed the hungry (help out at Manna Food Pantry, donate food).
- Give drink to the thirsty (show hospitality to those in need).
- Welcome the stranger (be welcoming to those you meet).
- Clothe the naked (donate clothing to the Thrift Store).
- Visit the sick (visit the homebound, hospitalized, those in the nursing home).
- Visit the prisoner (join the prison ministry team or offer support to them).
- Bury the dead (visit the cemetery, pray for the dead).
