

JUNE 15, 2008: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Mt 9:36-38

Pro-Life: Why should we speak out for the unborn? Because the babies have no legal rights, they can't fight back, no one hears their screams, and abortionists get big bucks for killing them. Like slavery, abortion, too, must end. Get involved in pro-life today.

In our Scripture Readings this week we hear that reconciled to God through the blood of Christ, we are a chosen people, “a holy nation”, the sheep of God’s flock. We are called, as were the Twelve, to go forth and bear witness to the reign of God.

Today, we celebrate Father’s Day. Let us pray for all of our living fathers:

Dear Lord, please look after those who have embraced the responsibility of being a father. Help make their burdens light and their roads straight. Give them the wisdom needed to be a good father and give them the words to say that will help guide their children. Let them live Your love and be an example to their children. May they turn to You in need and draw on Your strength and abundant love. Amen.

Today at the 10:30 Mass, we welcome the Teen ACTS Retreatants and team as they come off the Retreat Weekend. Let us pray for these young people and thank God for them.

I have extended an invitation to Rev. Jerry Morgan to come to our parish on the weekend of June 21 – 22, 2008. He will be speaking to you about the work being done through Christian Foundation for Children and Aging.

Christian Foundation for Children and Aging (CFCA) is a non-profit, international, Catholic mission assistance organization which works with the poor, especially needy children and elderly in 25 developing countries. Founded by Catholic lay people, CFCA mobilizes help and support for the poor while promoting understanding and care on an international level.

CFCA’s main activity is its sponsorship program whereby a child or elderly person at a Catholic mission site is linked with a sponsor who cares about them. A sponsor helps to provide much needed nourishing food, medical and dental care, the chance for a child to go to school and much more. All of these efforts are directed at affirming the individual as our brother and sister in Christ.

Please join me in welcoming Father Jerry to Sacred Heart Church next weekend.

Priests For Life Rev. Denis G. Wilde, OSA, has been invited by the Hallettsville Knights of Columbus Council #2433 to speak at their KC Hall on Sunday, June 29. The public is invited to this event, which will begin at 7 p.m.

Father Wilde will be coming to Texas from Drexel Hill, PA where he works from his home for Priests for Life. He will concentrate his Sunday evening talk on the Four P’s of Pro-life: Prayer, Persuasion, Presence and Politics, while including an overview of the 30-plus years of the abortion culture in homilies at the Saturday and Sunday, June 28 and 29, Masses in Hallettsville.

“When prayer, persuasion and presence begin to take root,” Father Wilde said, “that (culture and politics) will change automatically.”

June 22: Youth gather at 5:00 p.m. in the church, followed by Firefall at 6:00 p.m.

Let us pray for the blessing of rain:

Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. To think that so much water can fall out of the sky, which now is empty and clear! We place our trust in You. We are sure that You know our needs. But You want us to ask You anyway, to show You that we know we are dependent on You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice, and the rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of men will be made glad. Amen.

Cycles of Faith – 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

How often have you heard the phrase “ordinary people doing extraordinary things”? Our history is filled with such people, and all around us you can see them today. There are the doctors and nurses who routinely save lives; teachers who shoulder most of the responsibility of educating our young people; or even the thousands of people who participate in countless fundraising events to try to help eradicate deadly diseases. Their calling comes from within.

Today’s Gospel reading from Matthew tells of Jesus’ act of selecting His twelve disciples. So filled with compassion at the sight of thousands of people who came to hear His word, He prayed for and received “shepherds for the flocks.” But in the same vein as His humble beginnings, Jesus did not seek those who spoke with authority of the orthodox laws, but rather His disciples were ordinary men called to do the most extraordinary thing.

Would you answer such a call? We have, in fact, already been called! The apostles handed down the gift of love in Christ, a treasure we are entrusted with to pass down to our children and everywhere in the world open to God’s word (CCC 3). If we turn to God with all of the trust and faith promised by Jesus and delivered through the Holy Spirit, we have made real the kingdom of heaven. What an extraordinary accomplishment!

Thank you! The parking lot between the church, rectory and school has been completely re-paved thanks to the generosity of Victor Roeber, who funded the project.
