

January 4, 2009: The Epiphany of the Lord

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary His mother. They prostrated themselves and did Him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. – Mt 2:10-11

Spiritual Book Study: You are invited to participate in reading & discussing The Return of the Prodigal Son by renown author Fr. Henri Nouwen. A chance encounter with a reproduction of Rembrandt's painting of the encounter between the father & his wayward son sent our author on a long spiritual adventure. In his book he shares the deeply personal meditation that led him to discover the place within where God has chosen to dwell. We who join in this opportunity to study his work are sure to have our own encounter with God as we explore our life experiences in light of this familiar story from Scripture. Who do you most relate to – the father, the younger son or the elder son? Does it change for you? Come join us in this adventure & be enriched by the words we will read and the stories we will share on Wednesdays beginning January 7, 6:00 – 7:10 p.m. at Mary's House, 300 S. Dowling. For book ordering information, please call Pat Scherer at (979) 562-2252.

Thank you! The diocese's KC's, Catholic Daughters, Council of Catholic Women, Altar Societies & Youth Groups raised nearly $23,000 through the sale of olive wood gifts for the Christians living in the Holy Land. Thank you all for your assistance in this project. A special thank you to the parishioners who purchased items. Cindy Brewer, Victoria Holy Land Christian Support Network.

From the Desk of Father John

On behalf of Fr. Michael, Deacons Sonny and Joey, Sisters Emiliana and Colette, and the parish staff, I thank you for all your many kindnesses, gifts and prayers during this Christmas Season. I also thank everyone who helped in any way with decorating in the parish and all those who participated in special ways in the various liturgies.

We pray that you and your families will have a blessed and healthy 2009.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, the coming of the Three Kings. An old Catholic custom is the blessing of the home at Epiphany, especially the doorways. We can bless ourselves and the rooms of the home with holy water. We use chalk to mark the numerals and letters over doorways. The chalk reminds us of the dust of the earth from which we were made. The numerals consecrate the new year. The initials remind us of the legendary names of the Magi – Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar – and also stand for the Latin motto Christus mansionem benedicat (May Christ bless the house):

20 + C + M + B + 09

There is a very good Catholic television station called EWTN. It is on our local cable or you can get it on your satellite dish. EWTN has very good Catholic religious programming. It has a variety of instructional programs, daily Masses, the praying of the rosary and many inspirational programs. If you haven't watched it before, I would suggest you give it a try.

CCD classes resume January 7th.

First Penance: Practice January 17 at 9:00 a.m. First Penance on January 18 at 2:00 p.m..

Prayer for Rain: Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. We place our trust in You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice, and the rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of men will be made glad. Amen.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Throughout Germany at this time of year, you will find most main doorways inscribed with the following: 20+C+M+B+09. Children known as Sternsinger (star singers) dress up as the Magi and go door to door, requesting candy for themselves and money for the Church. As they leave, the house is blessed, and the inscription written in chalk. The 20 and 09 refer to the year, the CMB are said to represent either Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar – the Magi – or the Latin Christus Mansionem Benedicat, which means "Christ, bless this home."

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, in which we remember the adoration of the newborn Christ by three wise men from the East. This should leave no doubt in anyone's mind just how far and wide the promise of a Savior had spread. These representatives of pagan religions from other lands were determined to pay their respects; it was as if they were born to do this – to acknowledge in some way the beginning of the greatest reign of the greatest king of all.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that the Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and savior of the world (CCC 528). In the three wise men from different lands and different religions, we understand that in Jesus Christ, all are welcome. The Epiphany is the third manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation, following the Annunciation and the birth of Christ. Today is truly the beginning of the paschal mystery.
