

July 25, 2010: 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.”
He said to them, “When you pray, say:
Father, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come.
Give us each day our daily bread.”
— Lk 11:1-3

From the Desk of Father John

Thank you for all your prayers for my health. The response of so many people is overwhelming!

Thank you to Fr. Tommy and Fr. John K. for taking care of everything. They are doing a fine job.

I would encourage everyone to consider attending the day of Retreat in the Family Center on Saturday, August 7th. This should be a spiritually uplifting experience for those attending.

We had a very productive Picnic Meeting on Monday evening. The big area we want to work on is the auction. We are looking at having a large screen that can be seen by everyone showing what item is being auctioned so there is no confusion. We will possibly be using bid numbers as well.

One thing we need to get back to is having more cattle donated for the auction. Please consider this as well as other items. The Fall Picnic is September 5th.

The Youth ConneXion

Have a great summer! Look forward to new, upcoming events!

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

People have lots of prayers that they would like answered. Whether it is petitions written into the Book of Intercessions at church, requests made of a priest or a friend, entreaties offered to God before bed, or appeals made in the midst of a crisis, we are always looking for an answer. Sometimes we pray knowing what we want, like a child sitting on Santa's lap with a list of Christmas toys. And many times we pray with the expectation that God will see things our way and give us what we ask for.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus teaches His disciples about prayer. Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is a little different from Matthew's, but it is essentially the same. In Jesus' methodology, prayer starts with praising God (hallowed be Your name) and then asks God to do what God wants (Your kingdom come). Only then does prayer move on to posing our requests for God's consideration (give us each day our daily bread). And finally we ask for God's help (forgive us our sins). The Lord's Prayer became so much a part of Christian praying that the Fathers of the Church (early Christian writers like St. Augustine, St. Gregory, and St. Leo the Great) recommended that if a person couldn't remember any other prayer (like a psalm) he or she should just pray the Lord's Prayer instead.

The method of prayer that Jesus lays out for His disciples includes one final aspect - one that we like to forget. Luke's version puts it this way, "for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." More commonly we say, "as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.

"as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.
