

June 13, 2010: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." The others at table said to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace." — Lk 7:48-50

From the Desk of Father John

We thank Jo Kutac and Jo Ann Sadler for vacuuming and cleaning the church each Monday morning for some time now. They have done a wonderful job. We now have "A Plus Cleaning" cleaning the church each week.

We thank Jo Kutac also for taking care of the flowers in church for a long time. She has done a very good job with the flowers during the year and especially at Christmas and Easter. We now have Renee Bludau taking care of our flowers in church. If you have any questions about flowers in church, please call the rectory or Renee Bludau at 798-4945.

We appreciate all who do the various ministries around the church. We are very fortunate that, when those who have been helping in different areas for a long time step down, we have some younger people stepping in. This is the sign of a very vibrant and healthy church. Thank you to all who say yes to serving.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We'd like our children to be perfect angels. As parents, we spend a lot of time teaching them proper manners, coaching them on moral behavior, and helping them understand right from wrong. And while we would like everything they do to be good and right, we know that sometimes our sons and daughters have to learn from their mistakes. We just hope and pray that the mistakes in their lives are minor and give them an education, as opposed to serious problems that lead to calamitous results. Sometimes, as parents, we have to take a stand (tough love, some call it) as a way of holding firm to certain principles of behavior.

The woman in the Gospel today is described as a sinner, although Luke never specifies the actual sin. We like to imagine the worst - adultery, harlotry. Maybe we do that because if she's guilty of really awful sins (after all, Jesus said that her many sins were forgiven), then she's not quite like us. We can stand on the side of righteousness - just like the Pharisee! (Whoops! Is that really the side we want to be on?)

Well, yes, it is. We do want to be on the side of righteousness. But we don't want to be on the side of self-righteousness. That is the delicate balance that each of us must strike. When our own children behave badly, we have to be prepared with correction. But we also have to be ready with forgiveness. Mercy is also one of the certain principles of Christian life. And just as God's justice is tempered with eternal mercy, so must our own desire for the right be guided by a merciful love. It's not always an easy balance to strike, but as we'll hear throughout this year as we read from Luke's Gospel, God's mercy is without limit or end. 2010 Liturgical Publications Inc
