

March 21, 2010: Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." — Jn 8:6-7

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass 02001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Desk of Father John

All pastors in our diocese received this letter this week from our bishop. I want to share it with you.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Through God's grace, our diocese has eight seminarians. A young man may spend seven to nine years in the seminary. The offering you make goes directly to help pay for the seminarians' education and formation. Our diocese will hold the first of its annual collections on Holy Thursday to help fund the education of our future priests. Please consider being a part of our work. 100% of every dollar collected for this collection goes toward supporting the education of men studying for the priesthood. Our parishes and schools continue to pray for more vocations to the priesthood, religious life and diaconal service in our diocese. We ask for your continued prayers and support for those who are being called and for those already in formation. We need your help.

Sincerely and gratefully,

*The Most Reverend David E. Fellhauer
Bishop of the Diocese of Victoria*

What more can you do to help? Donate generously to the annual Holy Thursday collection. Include the Diocesan Seminarian Fund in your estate planning. Consider your own vocation and ask your pastor about supporting vocations. Pray for vocations to the priesthood and to consecrated life. Encourage our youth to pray and to be open to God's will.

2010 Census – In March, more than 130 million addresses across the nation will receive a 2010 Census form. The U.S. Constitution requires a national census once every 10 years for the purpose of reapportioning the U.S. House of Representatives. Every person living in the U.S. must be counted (people of all ages, races, ethnic groups, citizens & noncitizens). Census data directly affect how more than $400 billion per year in federal funding is distributed to state, local & tribal governments. Please complete & mail back your form & encourage your family, friends & neighbors to do the same.

Thank you for your generosity in last week's Catholic Relief Services Collection. Because of you, millions of people all over the world will receive vital assistance. You have truly given hope to Jesus in disguise.

Lenten Reflection. The Lenten call to repentance is matched by the overwhelming compassion and forgiveness of God. The story of the woman caught in adultery shows us that Jesus does not want to condemn us, but rather to place us on the path to new life. Our prayer, fasting, learning, and giving with Catholic Relief Services Operation Rice Bowl opens paths to new life for our brothers and sisters in need.

5th Sunday of Lent

Once again we have a well-known & familiar Gospel story proposed for our Lenten reflection. The account of the woman caught in the act of adultery is something that we can all relate to. She was found out – discovered – publicly shamed. It happens to most of us at some point in our lives, usually when we are young. We do something wrong, & get caught. And then we have to endure the humiliation of our wrongful act being known by others. It is expected that we will learn from our mistakes, but that doesn't always happen.

On the other hand, we're sometimes like the scribes & the Pharisees who bring the accusation. We discover something we can hold against another. Occasionally it is a secret knowledge that can fester in our hearts. At other times, it is a public shame that we do not hesitate to propagate for our own advantage. For whatever reason – vengeance, jealousy, mean-spiritedness – we want offenders to "get what's coming to them."

Maybe in the end, the story of the woman caught in adultery is to invite us to be neither sinner nor judge. Maybe the point of the story is to act like Jesus. Could we put ourselves in His role? He extends mercy, but He also proposes expectations ("do not sin anymore").

These past three Sundays before Holy Week have been about God giving us time. The fig tree that was allowed to grow another year, the prodigal son who was allowed to come back home, & the woman who was not condemned, were all given another chance. We all want that second chance when we sin. This Sunday's Gospel would suggest if we're going to follow Christ, we have to give another chance to those who sin against us as well. *2010 Liturgical Publications Inc
