From the Desk of Msgr. John

We are continuing to celebrate the Easter Season until Pentecost. Let us rejoice in the Resurrection of our Lord and truly give witness to our Faith.

Our Bishop David Fellhauer has retired at the age of 75. He is now Bishop Emeritus and will continue to live in Victoria. Our new Bishop is Bishop-elect Brendan Cahill from the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. He is 51 years old and 25 years ordained.

Bishop-elect Cahill will be ordained a bishop and installed as our third bishop on June 29th at Our Lady of Victory Cathedral in Victoria. There will be an administrator chosen to oversee the diocese until June 29th.

We will be having a retirement celebration for David Smolik as Principal of Sacred Heart Catholic School on Sunday, June 7th. We will honor him at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, followed by a reception at the K.C. Hall. We will give more details as we get closer to the date.

Fourth Sunday of Easter –

“And I will lay down My life for the sheep.” Jesus Himself gave us the image of Himself as the Good Shepherd. In trying to teach us about Who He was, His love for us, and His mission to save us, He chose to speak in these terms. The picture is a comforting one.

We can imagine the natural beauty of a shepherd on a hillside, gently leading and guiding his sheep to the places where all their needs are met. The shepherd makes sure they are fed, watered, rested, and, of course, safe. This last element is what separates a good shepherd from a bad one.

When a threat approaches his flock, the good shepherd will do whatever is necessary to save them, even at risk of his own safety. The bad shepherd, on the other hand, thinks only of himself and abandons the sheep in order to protect his own skin.

It's important, in understanding the analogy, for us to realize that we, the sheep of Christ's pasture, do face real threats, though they may be the kind that are hard to recognize. The wolves that prowl around our souls are the vices of anger, jealousy, lust, greed, gluttony, vanity, and laziness. We traditionally call these the seven deadly sins, and they are truly deadly. When we give in to them, we cut off our souls from the source of real life: God. But Jesus is the Good Shepherd, who lays down His life for us, literally. Jesus suffered and died on the cross, taking away the deadly consequence of sin. This selfless act has saved us by offering the forgiveness and reconciliation that our souls, weak and weary from the attacks of evil, desperately need. What a gift to be in the care of such a shepherd. What a joy to be in this flock where, as Jesus says, “I know Mine and Mine know Me.”

For Office use only:

Because Christian marriage is a sacrament, the Catholic Church wants couples to be well-prepared. Marriage preparation assists the couple in developing a better understanding of the sacrament; to evaluate and deepen their readiness to live married life; and to gain insights into themselves as individuals and as a couple.

Preparing for this program

This is an interactive preparation facilitated by priests, deacons and couples who are deeply committed to the Sacrament of Marriage.

Please come prepared to fully participate in the process. Mass will not be celebrated as part of the program, so please plan accordingly.

One hour will be allowed for lunch on your own. Please be prompt and respectful by being on time.

All materials will be provided and comfortable dress is recommended.

This is a Twogether in Texas approved program.
