

AUGUST 31, 2008: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after Me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life?"

From the Desk of Father John

In our Scripture Readings today, we read that following the Lord means nothing less than the cross: offering ourselves with Jesus as a living sacrifice and not conforming ourselves to this world. Following Him will entail derision and scorn, yet the Lord is our help.

This weekend we welcome all of our visitors who are in town for the parish picnic. Hopefully, everyone in the parish will pitch in to make our picnic a great success. It takes everyone's help, not just a few. Thank you in advance for all that you are doing to help with the picnic.
