

January 25, 2009: Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul

As He passed by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after Me, and I will make you fishers of men." – Mk 1:16-17

You will be able to catch up even if you have never attended. For book ordering info and /or questions, call Pat Scherer (979) 562-2252.

Spiritual Direction...is it for me? Sometimes people have the mistaken idea that spiritual direction is only for priests, deacons and religious. Our Church makes spiritual direction available for everyone, regardless of vocation. Spiritual direction is a confidential, individual opportunity to share with someone who has been trained to listen and perhaps offer suggestions that may enrich our prayer life.

There is never any charge. This is a gift we give to each other as the Body of Christ. For more info or to schedule an appointment, call Pat Scherer (979) 562-2252.

Prayer for Rain: Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. We place our trust in You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice, and the rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of men will be made glad. Amen.

From the Desk of Father Michael

“Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God (that is) with me.” (1 Corinthians 15:8-10) During this year, proclaimed the year of St. Paul, we celebrate this great apostle’s conversion with immense joy. By God’s grace, working in St. Paul, this man who spent so much energy tearing down God’s church, worked tirelessly to build it up. As a result, many were converted and brought to a deep faith in the Lord our God. St. Paul’s letters continue to teach us about the mercy of God and the working of His grace in and through His creation. Due to the great humility and faithful service this one man offered God and His Church, we—the Church—give praise to God for St. Paul on this day.

This weekend also marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week. The goal of Catholic Schools is primarily to shape and educate the youth in a Christ filled environment where each student is afforded the opportunity to grow spiritually, morally, academically, socially, and physically. We give thanks to God for the opportunity to have a Catholic School in the parish along with the 13 others in the diocese. Everyone of the parish is invited to join in the celebration of Catholic schools during this week with the various activities planned for each night of the week.

The Conversion of St. Paul, Apostle

There is the story of the man who, after a long life, passed away quietly. Upon entering heaven, he was offered the grand tour by none other than St. Paul himself. As they made their way, the man noticed many familiar faces staring back at him in what appeared to be shock. But the faces were familiar because they had led infamous lives as terrible sinners on earth, committing horrible crimes and bringing misery to many. "But St. Paul," the man said, "I can't believe such people are in heaven." St. Paul put his arm around the man. "Do you see that look of shock on their faces? As they were with me, they're stunned to see you've made it, too!"

A follower of Christ, Stephen, has been convicted of blasphemy against Moses and the Jewish church in Jerusalem. An angry crowd is summoned to carry out the punishment, death by stoning. They take off their robes and lay them at the feet of Saul of Tarsus for safekeeping; Saul has made a name for himself as one who would wipe out the fledgling Christian church. It wasn't until he was blinded by a light and heard the voice of Jesus while on his way to Damascus that Saul, later taking the name of Paul, realized his sins and asked for forgiveness; in return he would preach the Gospels himself with every breath.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that conversion – forgiveness and redemption of past sins – is most lovingly illustrated in the parable of the prodigal son. Despite a life of selfish pursuits, we will always be welcomed into the loving arms of the Father and the Church (CCC 1439). On this feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, know that no matter the dire details of our past, we will find forgiveness if we ask for it in faith.
