

June 21, 2009: 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" — Mk 4:35-40

Happy Father's Day!!!

From the Desk of Father John

Being a Catholic Dad is both a great privilege and a big responsibility. Along with their mothers, fathers have been entrusted to raise their kids to know and love God and to prepare them for lives as Catholic men and women. Odds are they are good at it, enjoy it and all deserve a pat on the back for the work they do raising their children in the Faith. It is important to keep holy the Lord's Day and teach the children by word and example how to participate in the Mass and in the life of the Church. Also, teach and practice forgiveness.

It is also important to play and have fun with the children. Also, be a "Mr. Doesn't-know-it-all." If you don't know the answer, look it up together.

A Prayer for Fathers

God our Father, we give You thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for our own fathers newly embracing their vocation; may they find the courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own fathers who have supported and challenged us; may they continue to lead in strong and gentle ways.

We remember fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many have tried to describe both courage and fear; it is thought that fear exists in us all and is ever present, but courage must be summoned from deep within when facing those fears. It would be safe to say, however, that courage is most easily exhibited when it is accompanied by faith; one could even argue that courage simply cannot exist without faith. In our lives we are faced with challenges both large and small on a daily basis; without faith, how do we ever expect to muster the courage it will take to face down our challenges and dismiss our fears?

In today's Gospel reading from Mark, Jesus has just finished teaching to a large crowd from a boat. As evening fell, He and the others with Him decided to sail to another shore for the evening. As Jesus slept, a storm arose and threatened to swamp the boats. His disciples feared for their lives; they were incredulous that Jesus could sleep through such danger. Waking up, Jesus calmed the storm, but turned to those who were so worried and questioned their faith. Without faith, was courage possible?

Perhaps no other time in our lives do we need to summon courage and strength more than when one of our loved ones is suffering from ill health. The sacrament of anointing of the sick has as its special grace an ability to allow the suffering one to face one's illness with strength, faith and courage (CCC 1532). But we must remember that we need courage every day. When we are faced with moral challenges, especially when we are alone, we are called to listen to that voice telling us what is right. That voice, the Holy Spirit, is our faith summoning the courage we need to make the right choice. ©2009 Liturgical Publications Inc

Prayer for Rain: Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. We place our trust in You. Look on our dry hills & fields, dear God, & bless them with the living blessing of soft rain.

Then the land will rejoice, & the rivers will sing Your praises, & the hearts of men will be made glad. Amen.
