2nd Sunday of Easter

During the Easter season this year, we will read from the Book of Revelation as the second reading. Revelation uses apocalyptic language, rich in symbolism, to describe experiences of the early Christian community near the end of the first century. In a time of persecution and distress, hyperbole was used as a literary convention to express the difficulties seen by the author, as brother turned against brother in the face of pressure to turn from the faith. The language of apocalyptic writing – so popular in the first century – was used to convey the extreme circumstances in which the church found itself. While the selections chosen for the Easter season provide a vision of hope, it is good to recognize that the hope they convey comes out of book written at a time when Christians found themselves under siege and threatened by Jewish leaders who were expelling them from the synagogues and Roman officials who were persecuting them as apostates.

And so, we begin today with a testimony from a man named John, incarcerated in a Roman penal colony, the island of Patmos. Biblical scholars tell us that this John is not the same person as the author of the fourth Gospel because the grammar and style of writing are so different. He may have been a disciple of John the Evangelist, or someone who was familiar with his work through the Johannine communities in Syria.

In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to the disciples who had sequestered themselves behind closed doors out of fear. He comes to give them hope. Though by a different author, the Book of Revelation presents the same theme: Jesus appears in order to give hope, to remind the faithful that He lives – an Easter message for today as well.

High Seas EXPEDITION.

VBS 12:00PM : Exploring the Mighty Love of God!

8:30AM-

Ages 4 – 5th grade

In just a few short months, our parish will go wild with kids seeking fun and adventure at our High Seas Expedition Totally Catholic Summer Program! They'll be learning about God through songs and prayer, making Bible crafts, and bringing our Catholic faith to life in fun and memorable ways.

To have the best adventure possible, we need lots of volunteers who can give some time, energy, and love to the kids who will attend. So let me share a few ideas about ways you might be able to make this program a success. Please check out the following list, and then pray about where God might use you.

Station Leaders: Are adults that use easy-to-follow station leader packs and prepare one 20-minute session each day, which you will repeat with four different groups of approximately 20-25 kids. The kids will attend the following stations...thankfully many of these have leaders that had such a great time in the previous years they are coming back again. But, they could use an aid or two!

- Daily opening & closing show - OPEN
- crafts and missions – Janice Bludau
- games- OPEN
- video adventure and discussion – Cheryl Leopold
- snacks - Mary Jo Bludau
- hands-on Scripture discovery – Pam Bohuslav
- music leader's –OPEN
- preschool director – Karen Kahanek

Crew Leaders: Are High School age–adults that lead a group of three to five elementary age children through each day's activities...and there's minimal preparation!

Still don't see something that interests you? We'd also love to have a...

- registration team
- decorating team to make props
- photographer and PPT coordinator
- Childcare coordinator for volunteer's kiddos - before and after programming
- cheer leader

Guess what? There are also a few spots for anyone who's dramatically inclined! Whatever your gifts, abilities, and time commitment, we've got a place for you!

We believe that God will use this incredible program to reach many children with the message of his love, so please prayerfully consider your role in our High Seas Vacation Bible School Expedition.

Feel free to contact me by e-mail, phone, or in person if you have any questions.

Blessings, Angela McConnell shre@shcatholicchurch.org, home 361-798-9494 or cell 281-455-0051.
