From the Desk of Father John

Beginning in September, we hope to provide a Dave Ramsey Financial Peace Course for 13 weeks here at Sacred Heart. This is a well known program that provides biblically based, common sense education and empowerment which gives HOPE to everyone from the financially secure to the financially distressed.

Beginning in September, we also hope to begin an English class here in the parish for the Spanish speaking. This would be to help those who do not know English to learn English and those who would like to improve their English to be able to do so in a Catholic setting. We will have an initial meeting on Wednesday, August 11 at 6:00 p.m. in the Family Center for those interested in the class.

I would like to thank everyone for your prayers and support as I go into surgery this coming Wednesday morning. The response of the parish and the community is overwhelming. God bless you for your care and concern.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Martha is a bit like a nervous hospitality manager. Jesus was a well-known prophet with a significant following. He was welcomed by Martha at her home. Luke never says why. Did she have the biggest house? Was she hoping for some momentary fame in the village? Was she a relative to one of the many disciples? Did she know Jesus from an earlier encounter? Or did she bake the best lemon meringue pie? (Well, we know it wasn't that one.) In any event, Jesus was there, and Martha certainly wanted to make a good impression just like any host or hostess.

At first blush, we might think Jesus' rebuke to Martha as a bit of a put down. Almost like telling folks at a conference banquet, "Listen to the speaker; ignore the waiters." But that is exactly what a good hospitality manager aims for, service personnel that are so competent that they are unobtrusive. And maybe that is the lesson we can take from the Gospel. We are to perform our service to God and neighbor in an unobtrusive, even unheralded, manner. We go about our lives not bragging about what good we've done. We just do it.
