

August 18, 2013: Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three.” — Lk 12:50-52

From the Desk of Msgr. John

I will be on vacation in Ireland this week returning late Friday night. Fr. Daniel will be here the entire time I'm gone.

Now that summer is over and everyone is getting back into a routine, I'd like to share with you a few guidelines for Church etiquette:

- 1.) Please turn off or silence cell phones, pagers, and remove blue tooth earpieces.
- 2.) Please keep a respectful quiet in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist before, during and after Mass, while other people may be praying.
- 3.) Please remember to wear appropriate, modest clothing.
- 4.) Please, for us adults, do not bring in cups of coffee.
- 5.) Please remember, except in case of true need, bottles of water are not needed...we probably won't dehydrate in an hour.
- 6.) Please remember chewing gum by anyone (any age, Catholic or not) is not acceptable ever, at any time, and especially during Mass. Reason?
 - A.) Respect
 - B.) One hour fast prior to Communion.

(To be continued next week....)

Prayer for Rain: Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is. To think that so much water can fall out of the sky, which now is empty and clear! We place our trust in You. Look on our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then the land will rejoice, and the rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of men will be made glad. Amen.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Even one hundred and fifty years after it took place, the effects of the Civil War in the United States can still be felt. Even though the shifting population has tempered perceptions, those who work in the social sciences can still point to sections of the country where certain attitudes hold a greater sway than in others.

The divisions that Jesus attests to in this weekend's Gospel spring from the real experience of the early Christian community in the first century of its existence. For some, Christianity was a dangerous philosophy that needed to be eradicated. Some of its propositions threatened the security of the state, like the worship of the one God and the equality of everyone before the Lord referenced in Paul's famous words to the Galatians: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (3:28).

The Gospel today is not an encouragement to family arguments. Jesus is not asking households to be so rigorous that our faith becomes a point of contention. But the Scripture does allude to a stress point that many of us may confront in our lives. Being a believer means that sometimes we must take a stand. We are called to proclaim clearly what we believe and to do that when it may be uncomfortable for us. We won't necessarily become a martyr, but there are times when there is a cost to our faith.
