Today we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. God sent His Son to save us and to forgive us, making us His adopted children. Like the Trinity, may we be united in peace and love through the Spirit, through whom we offer God praise and glory.

Today, we also celebrate Father's Day. We pray in a special way for all Fathers, living and deceased. We also pray for grandfathers, godfathers, and those men who take on the role of father to other children and those men who serve as role models for children.

June 15, 2014 – The Most Holy Trinity

"For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him." God wants us to be saved. To be saved from sin and the pain, misery, and despair that come with it. But God wants to do more than save us "from" bad things. God also wants to save us "for" good things. To save us for heaven, for holiness, for the happiness that doesn't fade away. God wants what's best for us.

That's why He sent His Son. He didn't send a servant or a slave. He didn't send a messenger or a minion. He sent part of Himself, His own Son, the second person of the Trinity. This was obviously a mission of great love.

As we hear in today's reading, God gave His only Son, Jesus, "so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life." To believe in Jesus is to accept two radical claims of Christianity. First, that God is the Trinity, three-persons-in-one-God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And second, that God loved us enough to become One of us through His incarnation. We refer to these things as "mysteries of the faith" because they aren't easy to explain or understand. But through faith, we can accept them and live according to them.

In this day and age, we are often discouraged from being people of faith. We are expected to accept scientific facts and figures, but when it comes to spiritual mysteries like the Incarnation or the Trinity, our culture tends to be skeptical. As Christians, we are called to bear witness to this culture. Through our faith, we can encourage others to accept that these mysteries are not fantasies. God has really sent His Son to save the world! Let us do our part to help "the world" to believe it's true.

Youth Group News~~

We thank everyone who helped with the picnic. We look forward to all the Youth helping out again in the Fall. Our final fundraiser for our Summer conference is the Community Pink Flamingo Yard Flock. We are spreading cheer throughout the community by surprising its members with a flock of plastic flamingos. They will be set out by members of our youth group. Along with this, we ask for prayers and donations if feasible. Watch out! Your home may be next to be invaded by our friendly flamingos.

We are also announcing a Youth Group Day at Splashway Waterpark in Sheridan, Texas, on Wednesday, June 18 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Those planning to attend will need to bring $10 for admission. Food will be provided and we look forward to an awesome day! All members of Sacred Heart Youth Group—Grades 8-12 are welcome to attend. In order to receive this discount, students must arrive before 10:15 a.m. and check in with Troy Spring or a designated Sacred Heart Chaperone. All students attending must also provide a permission form. Forms can be found in the back of church or at the Rectory, or can be requested via email by emailing: troy@splashwaywaterpark.com. We hope to see many of you there on June 18. God Bless!

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

Lord, please bless our fathers, these men who mean so much to us, who are greatly responsible for who we are and who we are becoming.

Bless them for having the courage to do what's necessary to keep us out of trouble, for making us do the right thing, for helping us build our character, even when it makes us angry; and bless them for pushing us to do our best, even when they just want to love us.

Bless our fathers for being our protectors, for leading us through stormy times to safety, for making us believe that everything will be all right and for making it so.

Bless our fathers for quietly making a living to provide for those they love most, for giving us food, clothing, shelter and the other material things that really matter, for unselfishly investing time and money in us that they could have spent on themselves.

Bless our father, Lord, for saving some energy for fun, for leading us on adventures to explore the outer reaches of ourselves, for making us laugh, for being our playmates and our friends.

Bless them for being our secure foundation, our rock, for holding on tight to us... until it's time to let us go.

Lord, bless these men we look up to, our role models, our heroes, our fathers. In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

Happy Father's Day!
