

May 18, 2014: Fifth Sunday of Easter

5th Sunday of Easter – "I will come back again and take you to Myself, so that where I Am you also may be." Now this is some-thing to look forward to: being where Jesus is, in heaven. What could be more satisfying, more beautiful, more perfect? Heaven is where we find the "fulfillment of the deepest human longings" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1024). Our longing for love that doesn't fail, our longing for peace that doesn't end, our longing for happiness that doesn't fade away - all of this is awaiting us. Today, Jesus tells His disciples that He is going to "prepare a place" for them. We are His disciples too, and so we also have a spot in the "Father's house." But we need to make sure we know how to get there!

This is what Thomas the (doubting) Apostle asked about in today's Gospel: "How can we know the way?" Thomas wants to be sure about things. He is looking for a kind of spiritual roadmap to give him the confidence that he's on the right path. This is what we have in Jesus. He responds to Thomas' question with these words: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." In other words, Jesus is like an infallible heavenly GPS. He gets us where we want to go.

By heeding Christ's teachings and following His example, we can navigate through the many competing "ways" that vie for our attention. But more than just serving as a spiritual signpost, Jesus wants us to be in a real relationship with Him. As He asks Philip today, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know Me?" If Jesus Himself is the way, then it is only by truly knowing Him that we will find our way to heaven where we will finally behold Him face-to-face.
