Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass 2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Desk of Msgr. John

I was on retreat this past week at the Spiritual Renewal Center with a number of priests from the Diocese of Victoria. It was a very uplifting and rewarding experience. Everyone should take the time to make a retreat—even for one day. We all need to step back from our routine and get spiritually renewed.

This week, Sacred Heart School, along with the other Catholic schools, will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week. This nation-wide annual event is meant to highlight the work and ministry of Catholic schools in our church.

We are blessed and privileged to have such a wonderful Catholic school in our own parish. The hallmarks of Catholic schools are that they educate both mind and soul. What makes Sacred Heart School Catholic is not the fact that it teaches theology alongside Literature, Science, and Math, but that it incorporates the Christian life into all aspects of the school's activities. Unlike other schools, Sacred Heart School requires that God and prayer are daily topics.

It is due to a lot of sacrifice and hard work on the part of many people—past, present, and future—that we are able to have this school. Please take some time this week to participate in some of the Catholic Schools' Week activities.

Remember that I am taking applications for the position of Principal at Sacred Heart Catholic School. There is a process we follow through the Catholic Schools' Office. There will be a committee working with me on the selection process. Pray for the success of this selection process.

If you are interested in this position or know of someone who is, please submit your application to me at the rectory.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Repent, and believe in the gospel." What would happen if Jesus spoke these commanding words today? Would his listeners accuse him of shoving his religion down their throats? Would they give him a lecture on tolerance or insist that repentance is an outdated idea from a bygone era obsessed with guilt? How many of us would actually listen to him, take him at his word, and do what he said?

Our modern sensitivities have been programmed to respond with skepticism, if not anger, to any suggestion that there is a "right" way of doing things or a "true" religion. Much of our culture subtly preaches that right and wrong is all relative and that religions are all generally the same. But when Jesus tells us to repent, he implies that some of the choices we are making are wrong, that we need to change; to eliminate our sins, to turn toward God, and to become more loving, more generous, and more forgiving. And when he tells us to believe in the Gospel, he's not just making a recommendation or offering some sage advice. He is giving us directions for what we need to do to enter into "the kingdom of God."

The challenge we face in our day and age is to silence the societal messages that color our thoughts and instead listen to Jesus with an open mind. Are we willing to let his words affect us? Are we ready to examine our lives and repent of our sins? Are we prepared to believe the good news he preached of salvation and forgiveness? His message is more than a command. It's an invitation. He wants us to share in the glory of his heavenly kingdom, now and for all eternity. The question is only how we will respond to this divine invitation.
