From the Desk of Msgr. John

Thank you to everyone who helped in any way with the Celebration for Consecrated Life last Sunday. It was a special time to honor the Sisters, especially the Sisters of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament for their consecration to Religious Life.

Bishop Cahill was the Principal Celebrant for the 10:30 Mass. The sisters took care of the various ministries and the beautiful singing. There were many sisters present for the occasion.

Thank you to the Serra Club of Victoria Northwest (the Hallettsville area), the Associates of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament and other parishioners who helped in any way with the displays and the food afterwards. It was a great day of education, food and fellowship.

We celebrated Veterans' Day this past week. We thank our Veterans for their service, those who have served our Country in the past and those serving our Country presently. Let us never forget our veterans and their families.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." It may strike us as odd that there are things that the angels don't know. But it's even more surprising that Jesus--the Son of God--would have been unaware of the divine schedule for the end of the world. Given all of this, should it come as any surprise that there are things that God chooses not to reveal to us right now?

In his wisdom, God knows when the timing is right to reveal his plans to us. The fact that we don't know everything helps us remember that we are not God. We are his creatures, dependent upon him for our existence, our sustenance, and for the hour of our death too. In this era of instant Internet information, advanced diagnostic medical tests, and statistical surveys predicting future trends, it's hard to accept the fact that there are some things we just can't know. But this reality should keep us humble, reminding us that we don't have to know everything because we are in the powerful hands of a loving God.

Thus, any attempt to "see the future" through psychic mediums like palm reading, tarot cards, or astrology suggests a kind of distrust in God. As the catechism states, such practices "contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (2116). As much as we might want to know when the world will end, when our dreams will come true, or when our problems will cease, we are called to walk in faith, accepting what God chooses to reveal and trusting that even our moments of uncertainty are part of his benevolent plan for us. As today's psalm declares, "you will show me the path to life." What else do we really need to know?
