From the Desk of Msgr. John

We welcome Bishop Brendan Cahill To Sacred Heart this Sunday morning to the 10:30 Mass. Today we are celebrating Consecrated Life. Along with the Bishop, we welcome back the Sisters who have taught here, the Sisters who are native to the Parish and area and other visiting Sisters.

After the Mass, everyone is invited to tour the School, take a look at various displays about the sisters, ask questions, visit with the sisters and have refreshments. It is a good way to get more in tune with Consecrated Life.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." Just two small coins, worth only a few cents--this was the greatest contribution of the day? Jesus explains that this widow's tiny sum was generous in a way that the larger amounts people gave were not. Others made noticeable, "impressive" donations to the Temple treasury, which in fact cost them nothing. These were simply "from their surplus wealth." But the poor widow "contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." She was truly generous, giving what cost her dearly. Her contribution was made out of love, not just out of obligation or for the sake of show.

God has given us all different "livelihoods." Some of us have more money, more talents, more resources. Some of us have less. But of course we know that God's love for us is not based on this external data. He loves the rich and the poor alike. The question is whether this external data affects our love for God. Sometimes, those who are poor are more aware of God's providence and protection. Sometimes, they are bitter. As for those who are rich, it can be tempting to feel so comfortable and complacent that they don't recognize their need for God or his action in their lives. But Jesus' message challenges us all today to gratefully give back to God in thanks for whatever he has given us, be it small or great. We are called not to give from our surplus but to share from our very livelihood. That is to say, we are called to acknowledge that our livelihood itself, no matter the details, is a gift from God. Let us follow the wisdom of the widow who showed gratitude for what she had and was truly generous in spite of what she lacked.

Life and Liberty Constitutional Rally

The "Life and Liberty Constitutional Rally" will be held on Saturday, November 14, at the KC Hall in Hallettsville. Intended for the entire community, the Republican Women of the Yoakum Area are honoring our local law enforcement, first responders, and pastors. In addition, the winners of the RWOYA annual high school senior constitutional essay scholarships will be recognized. Doors will open at 6 p.m.; program begins at 7 p.m. Speakers are Senators Lois Kolkhorst and Donna Campbell, Empower Texans Pres. Michael Sullivan, Right to Life Pres. Jim Graham and Justice Greg Perkes.

Because of difficult and trying times in our nation and the recent attacks on law enforcement and Christians, RWOYA is calling together all leaders and citizens in Lavaca, DeWitt, and Gonzales county to stand up and rally together in support of our constitution and to honor our law enforcement and to celebrate our Christian beliefs and the right to life. Tickets are available at the door or from Monica Foyt 798-1572, Helen Appelt 798-3900, or Donna Nevlud 798-2935.
