From the Desk of Msgr. John

Next Sunday is All Saints Day and Monday is All Souls Day. Please remember to pray for all the faithful departed, especially those who have no one way to pray and visit them.

Next Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Gym and next Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., in the gym, we will hold a concert for young and old alike. It will be a free will donation.

Here is a bit of description of what it will be like:

The lights dim. A brooding synthesizer swells as a thin man walks to the microphone. He whispers the first lyrics.

Moments later, the song explodes with vibrant lights and videos depicting life and love. For the next 90 minutes, Michael James Mette guides the audience through a rock concert that is passionate like a Friday night and reverent like a Sunday morning. Beyond just music, the concert has moments for everyone including: prayerful ballads, heartfelt stories, and moving testimonies.

Since May, 2013, when he began traveling full-time, Michael has played over 250 dates in 41 states. His wife, Michelle, and their 6 young children join him on tour. Michelle's perspective adds depth and the children's presence bring fun and innocence to the evening.

Providing a bridge between the sacred and the secular, Michael's latest album, Arts + Humanity (2015) is planted firmly at the intersection of the church and culture. Bring Forth the Light (2012) explores the themes of eternal life, human love, and redemptive suffering. Always What I Need (2010) invites listeners to the trust in God's providence.

Although music is his passion, Michael's heart is always focused toward ministry. As a cradle Catholic, he has spent most of his life sharing his creative gifts with the broader church. He has a degree in Theology and has worked in parish ministry. In his leisure time, Michael enjoys playing board games with his kids, following Cardinals baseball, cooking new recipes, and running.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more." The blind Bartimaeus was a courageous fellow. Not only was he bold enough to call out to Jesus who was passing by, but he also had the guts to keep on calling, even when people were telling him to be quiet. Clearly, this man knew that he needed Jesus—and he wasn't about to let popular opinion convince him otherwise.

What were those people thinking who tried to silence the poor beggar? Perhaps they thought that Jesus was too busy for a stop along the way. Maybe they bought into the prevalent idea that Bartimaeus' blindness was a punishment for sin and that he was therefore a lost cause. Or it could be that they were just annoyed by his persistence. Whatever the case, these folks tried to pressure Bartimaeus into giving up. But he didn't. And the reward for his steadfastness was priceless: "Immediately he received his sight."

Immediately, that is, after he encountered Christ. But let's not forget that he had to invest all that time and energy earlier in order to arrive at that precious encounter. And we may have to do the same. Our persistence in prayer is often a necessary first step to the gift of God's intervention in our lives. We, like Bartimaeus, may have to call out time and time again, making our requests known to Jesus even when it may seem he isn't looking our way. We too may need to be faithful in the face of doubters and detractors who tell us that our prayers are pointless, that God doesn't really care, or that we deserve to be stuck in our own misery. Let us seek to be like this man who heard Jesus say, "Your faith has saved you!"
