From the Desk of Msgr. John

During the Lenten Season, let's reflect upon the next Seven Last Words of Christ: (continued)

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?—
Mark 15:34

Lord, Jesus, I am struck by the stark, vulnerable honesty of your prayer. So often I hide such sentiments, not only from God, but from myself. I trumpet my devotion while burying my doubts, fears, and hurts. I long for your mature and childlike intimacy that can pray without pretense or reserve. Heal my prayer from undue anger, but also from artificial piety. Children of God, it seems, are most faithful when they pray from the heart.

It is finished.—John 19:30

Lord, Jesus, even in death a comforting sense of fulfillment imbues your words. We have tasted this feeling, but our accomplishments are but a shadow of your triumph. We rejoice over a faithful marriage, but you have wedded heaven to earth. We take pride in constructing a sturdy home, but you have built the house of God. We know peace after heroically saving a life, but you have saved the world. May we be blessed to finish our lives so well.

Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.—Luke 23:46

Lord, Jesus, perhaps your final gift to us was the legacy of graceful surrender. Yet, we cling to belongings, youth, and to life itself as if letting go were the ultimate sin. Teach us the art of holy resignation. Help us to know when the time has come to let go of a want, a dream, or a life. Steel our hands to hold the gifts that endure—integrity, truth, and love. Then, as we share your cross, we too may confidently place our spirits in God's loving hands.

LUKE 4:8

Pastoral Institute

You are invited to a distance learning course that the Diocese of Victoria Pastoral Institute is presenting at St. Anthony School beginning on April 12. This will be a 4-week course. In this course, we will reflect on what is essential in our Catholic faith, based on Scripture, the Tradition of the Church, and the hierarchy of truths. Because Jesus Christ is the center of our lives, we will focus on revelation, God, the Incarnation, the Pascal Mystery, the Church, the Sacraments and our life in Christ. We will also reflect on the role and necessity of faith in our lives, and the difference between faith, theology and belief. This course will benefit all adult Catholics, but it is highly recommended for catechists and other Church ministers. (Dates: Thursdays: April 12, 19, 26, May 3). St. Anthony, Columbus (via distance learning from Victoria). Time: 7:00 p.m.—9:15 p.m. Course Fee: $20. To register and pay online, go to www.victoriadiocese.org: Click ministries, then Pastoral Institute Continuing Education Program, Call 361-573-0828 ext. 2224 for more information and/or assistance.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

“Now there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the feast. They came to Philip...and asked him, ‘Sir, we would like to see Jesus.’” It has begun. News of Jesus has spread beyond native-born, Aramaic-speaking Jews. We don’t know if the Greeks mentioned here heard of Jesus from fellow travelers or if news of this intriguing rabbi had reached all the way to their home. What we do know is that this interaction spurred an interesting comment from Jesus: “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.” In other words, it has begun. The time has come for the message to move beyond the geographic bounds of Israel.

But what does this message require? The Gospel is clear: “he said this indicating the kind of death he would die.” A grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies to its life as only a seed. A caterpillar takes on the appearance of temporary death in order to transform into a butterfly. In the Gospels, sacrifice and death are a way of becoming something more than you were before.

This Lent, new life can come from our sacrifices. When we enter into the season with Jesus, our difficulties can transform our perspective. “Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.”

As we abstain from meat and fast from eating between meals, we can grow in compassion for the hungry. We can give alms of our time, sacrificially spending time with the lonely, the sick, and the marginalized. Our little Lenten “deaths” – death to unnecessary preferences, death to selfish living, death to ignorance of other’s pain – can bring new life to the world long after the season is over. This is the invitation this Sunday and every Lenten season, to begin anew from death to life.

GIRLS SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Girl Scout Week is celebrated each March, beginning with Girl Scout Sunday and ending with Girl Scout Sabbath on Saturday, and always includes the Girl Scout Birthday, March 12.

Girls are welcome to join Girl Scouting any time of the year. There are many pathways she can choose: Join a troop, Go to Camp, Attend Events, Take Advantage of discounts from our Partners, Travel, or even become an Individual Registered Girl Scout and work with family at home. Or she can do all of the above.

For more information, call 1-800-477-2688 or email: info@gsgst.org (for local information, call Nicole Dworsky (361-218-3680).
