SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH 1969-2019

In 1969, the old Sacred Heart Catholic Church was taken apart and the current Sacred Heart Catholic Church was built by Bohlmann Construction of Schulenburg at a cost of $200,000.00, and was dedicated on November 23, 1969, by Archbishop Francis J. Furey. The new church, constructed on the same site where the old church stood, seats 600 in a semi-circle around the altar. The church was fully paid for even prior to its dedication.

The old Crucifix, the Stations of the Cross, the Baptismal Font, two Sacred Heart Statues and the statues of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph were used in the new church, and the old bells of Sacred Heart Church that bear the date of 1883 were installed in the new Bell Tower.

The new buildings are but a physical representative of the sacrifice and earnestness of purpose of the parishioners of Sacred Heart.

Pastors throughout its history contributed in great measure to the success of the church and the school. Their vision and effort made possible the many advances.

Msgr. Stanley Joseph Petru served as Pastor at Sacred Heart from May 1969 through January 1980. While in Hallettsville, he completed the building of the new church which was started by Father Lambert Laskowski, his predecessor at Sacred Heart. Many other accomplishments occurred during his tenure, among them the first family ministry course to be completed in the United States. It was taught by the Oblates. He was the pastor during the construction of the Band Hall, funded by the Brom Family. He also initiated the first Stewardship Program and information about the parish was computerized. Sacred Heart Parish was granted the privilege of first Saturday evening Mass on June 28, 1969.

A new church sign was erected by the church bell tower in August, 1971. The back of the sign contains the cornerstone of the old church, together with the historical mission cross which was made in 1876 by Fritz Schulte. The inscription on the cross stating in German, "Save your soul, a remembrance of the Holy Mission, 1876." Behind the sign is also a piece of the original stone and the original step from the old Church.

Father Patrick Marron served as Pastor from January 1980 through September 1981. During his years as Pastor of Sacred Heart, the Vocational Arts building was constructed, and work began on the Parish Center and Gymnasium. Adult religious education courses were taught for the first time in many years and were well attended by the parishioners.

Msgr. Thomas C. McLaughlin served as Pastor from October 19, 1981, through February 6, 1982. Msgr. McLaughlin introduced Sacred Heart's first $50.00 per plate fund raising dinner.

Rev. Celestino Say was installed as the fourteenth Pastor of Sacred Heart from February 7, 1982, through August 3, 1994. Father Say came to Sacred Heart as associate pastor on June 11, 1975, where he remained until he was called to be the pastor on February 7, 1982. His years of experience in the parish gave him the special ability to interpret the needs of the parishioners. Many of the accomplishments of the later years occurred with his assistance. Also, under Father Say, the SHHS Scholarship Program began in 1983, and the Sacred Heart School Endowment Fund was established in 1982. SHS participated in their first Youth Spectacular in Victoria in 1984. The statues in the Church, Stations of the Cross, and the Jesus Statue beneath the Bell Tower were painted. The area Churches Organized the "Manna Food Pantry," which Msgr. John Peters has been President of the Board since 2004.

Father Say also established The First SH Annual Reunion, additional Donation Funds—SHS Alumni, SHS Band, SH Parish Center and Computer in 1990. Also, Visitors of SH—a group of parishioners who visit the sick or homebound was formed. A Texas Historical Marker for Sacred Heart Church was erected. Manna Food Pantry and Clothing Shop was renamed L.A.M.B. (Lavaca Assistance Ministry Body).

Rev. Msgr. John C. Peters has been serving as the fifteenth Pastor since August 3, 1994 to the present. He officially took over his duties as Pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and St. Mary's on August 3, 1994, and later, in 2001, also the pastorship responsibilities of St. John the Baptist, St. John, and Ascension of Our Lord, Moravia. He was installed as pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Mary's in Hallettsville by Bishop David E. Fellhauer on August 17, 1994.

Much has been accomplished during his time at Sacred Heart. In 1994, Children's Bulletins, as well as the Annual School Teacher Appreciation Banquet (Extravaganza) were begun. In 1995, the following were established: Radio Broadcast of the Mass on Sunday at 8:00 a.m. (Msgr. John does a daily reflection to begin the local radio station every morning at 6:00 a.m. Monday through Friday and 7:00 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday); Grotto rebuilt; Quilting Circle started; and bought Cemetery Land. In 1996, the Serra Club was started; a monthly Spanish Mass began, the Bereavement Committee formed, Baptism Preparation Classes began; Pre-K (4 years old) enrollment started;

Altar Society started; 24-Hour Adoration for First Friday of the Month; and Junior Catholic Daughters started. In 1998, the Family Center/Cafeteria was dedicated, Children's Collection was begun; beginning of ACTS Retreats; and the new sound system in Church. The Art House was purchased for Art classes to be taught at Sacred Heart, and Mary's House was donated for meetings.

In the year 2000—Jubilee Year – Opening Wide the Doors, new High School Library/Media Center was dedicated. In 2001-2007, the Day Care was established; the new Elementary School Library/Media Center was dedicated. The Parish also purchased a rent house, known now as Sacred Heart Youth House along with the parking lot. Other structures added were the Mausoleum; glass doors in the foyer of church added; Perpetual Adoration Chapel established; SH Youth House dedicated; and Elementary and Junior High Gym constructed, and the Pre K-3 was established. The Elementary and Junior High were renovated. The Gym was completely renovated.

Added during this latter part of the history of Sacred Heart Church—padded pew cushions and new kneelers were installed, St. Ludmila and Our Lady of Guadalupe statues were donated, an Outside Nativity set was donated, lighted Cross was donated and placed on top of the Church, a new home was given to the parish for the use of the Sisters as a convent on Dowling Street, fencing was installed around the school for the safety of the children, security cameras and security doors were also added in the school. New windows were installed in front of the school and three new buses were purchased over the years.

Fourteen priests were from Sacred Heart or ordained from Sacred Heart, including three bishops. Bishop John L. Morkovsky (deceased) was ordained in 1933; Bishop Antonio Nepomuceno (deceased) in 1953; Bishop Charles V. Grahmann (deceased) in 1956. Msgr. James Henke (retired) in 1966. Our present Associate, Father Scott Hill, attended Sacred Heart in his Senior year. Caleb Krischke, another alumnus, is presently in the Seminary. Also, there is one Religious Brother—Brother James Nicholas Grahmann (retired).

Two parishioners became Permanent Deacons—Deacon Sonny Rogers (deceased) and Deacon Michael Tankersley. Thirty-three Sisters came from Sacred Heart Parish or just outside the parish boundaries and attended Sacred Heart School. Presently Cherise Klekar, daughter of Robert and Margaret Klekar, will be taking her vows with the Apostles of the Interior Life this December.

Presently serving:

Msgr. John C. Peters (25 years)

Rev. Scott Hill

Deacons: Linard Harper, Joey Targac, and Michael Tankersley

Sisters: Emiliana Grafe (I.W.B.S.) and Colette Kouba (I.W.B.S.) (both alumni).
