From the Desk of Msgr. John

Today is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord—the last day of the Christmas Season.

Jesus is the beloved Son of the Father. He is the light of the nations and Lord of all creation. To him be all glory and praise! On Jesus, the beloved of the Father, the glory of the Lord has been revealed. Salvation is offered to all, and the earth is renewed!

After the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, Ordinary Time begins.

ORDINARY TIME

“Besides the times of the year that have their own distinctive character, there remains in the yearly cycle thirty-three or thirty-four weeks in which no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ itself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays. This period is known as Ordinary Time.

Ordinary Time begins on Monday, January 13 and continues through Tuesday, February 25, the day before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten Season. It will resume when the Easter season ends, that is, on Monday, May 1, the day following Pentecost.

Father Scott and I will be on our annual Priest Retreat this week from Sunday evening until Thursday afternoon. Masses will be as usual during the week with Father Tony Pesek filling in.

Novena for Life

Join us at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Hallettsville for a Novena (nine days) of Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration in reparation for the sin of abortion and to pray for the protection of all human life from the moment of conception. The Novena begins on: Tuesday, January 14, 2020, and will conclude on Wednesday, January 22, 2020, with the Holy Hour at 6:00 p.m.

Tuesday, January 14 through Wednesday, January 22 – Holy Hour – 6:00 -7:00 p.m.

Sunday, January 19— Holy Hour with Eucharistic Procession around the Courthouse and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament— 2:00 p.m. We encourage all 4th Degree Knights to fall out for Procession. (No Holy Hour)

Wednesday, January 22, 2020— Conclusion of Novena for Life with Holy Hour 6:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m.

Please pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

VISITING PRIEST—REV. FATHER LAWRENCE VILLONE

This past Wednesday, January 8th, we celebrated the 14th Anniversary of the beginning of our Adoration Chapel.

On the weekend of January 25th and 26th, Father Lawrence Villone will be preaching at the Masses at Sacred Heart and St. Mary about Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. He will also meet with some of the Adorers after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Rev. Father Lawrence Villone is a very dynamic preacher and missionary. He is highly successful in establishing Perpetual Eucharist Adoration Chapels in various parishes and communities around the United States and in other countries. Personally, he has opened up over 200 Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapels over the last several years. In addition, Father Villone has given numerous missions on devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, Adoration, and Eucharist spirituality as well as a variety of other inspiration topics. As a missionary, he zealously strives to achieve the goal of Pope Francis, and the late Saint John Paul II, to have Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration in every parish and Christian community throughout the world.

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS

If you are having problems with your Church envelopes (not being delivered, cancelled, or new parishioner), please contact Phyllis at the Rectory. Cathedral Stewardship Envelopes has had some problems recently and information sent to them was lost. Thank you for your help in this matter.

The Baptism of the Lord
January 12, 2020

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives four reasons for the Incarnation, why God became man in Jesus Christ. The third reason is “to be our model of holiness.” All of Jesus’ words and actions model for us what we ought to do. He also shows us how we’re meant to be. Jesus’ baptism ought to remind us of our own baptism and of the importance of baptism in the Christian life.

The Baptism of the Lord reminds us of our Trinitarian identity. When we are baptized, we stand in solidarity with Christ, bathed in the waters he sanctified. There, the Father proclaims our adoption into the family of God. “This is my beloved son [this is my beloved daughter], with whom I am well pleased.” And the Spirit, too, descends. We are filled with the Spirit’s grace and power to continue Christ’s mission on earth. We received these gifts in the sacrament, and they continue to dwell within us through sanctifying grace. We can — and should — invite God to stir up these graces of our baptism and consider them in our own lives.

Does Christ feel like a distant relative two thousand years in the past? Or do you see him as someone who can be encountered here and now? Ask yourself where you find your sense of dignity and worth. Do you still search for it in success, social status, and selfish pursuits? Or are you able to rest in being a beloved child of God? Remember, baptism gives us a call and a charge to change the world. Do you pray for the Holy Spirit to guide you? Or are you so focused on your own life that you miss the mission? This week, let’s do as Jesus did. Let’s live in our baptism!

Lessons from Baptizing a Frog

I used to lead an RCIA session on baptism, where I would bring in my Kermit the Frog toy from when I was a child and pretend to baptize it. It was a session I especially made sure I led when we had children preparing for Easter sacraments. You would think Kermit would have become super holy having been baptized so many times, year after year. But, if he had been real, he would not have been any holier due to multiple baptisms than he was after the first baptism. He couldn’t be re-baptized. (Not to mention, of course, he is a FROG.)

When Jesus came to John for baptism, he transformed the baptism of repentance that John was practicing into a baptism of redemption. And although we are called to repentance over and over in our life, redemption comes to us only once. We cannot get baptized again in the Jordan or Sea of Galilee because of romantic notions, or come into the Catholic Church by a second baptism so we can start all over. Our baptism, whether we can remember it or not, is a one-time deal. But it is the real deal. Whether you feel it or not, you are sealed for Christ, and the stain of original sin has been washed away.

Too many of us take that moment for granted. Yes, you may have been baptized as an infant. But much time has passed since then, and you can work to understand the impact that it had on your life. We sometimes look for a good time to begin living a stewardship way of life. However, that time already passed, and God has been waiting. We are called to reflect on our baptism and respond to the call it has placed on our lives. We can respond and be disciples, or we can be like Kermit the Frog, always searching for a new start that never comes.
