GIVE TO CHURCHES ONLINE

The Diocese of Victoria has created a page on its website that will help members of our parishes continue their weekly or monthly giving. Some churches may have an online process already and parishioners can continue to give through their home church's website.

However, to make sure all churches have the capability for online giving, each is listed in alphabetical order at:

www.victoriadiocese.org/parish-donations

Click on your church and put in your payment information. You can choose a credit or debit card or a checking account. You also can choose to make a one-time gift or a recurring gift.

If there are any questions about the website page, please call:

Janet Jones, Director of Communications, at 361-573-0828, Ext. 2231, or Justin Reyes at 361-573-0828, Ext. 2265.

Or you can e-mail your questions to jjones@victoriadiocese.org or jreyes@victoriadiocese.org

You may mail your envelopes to the Church or bring them by the Rectory.

The Adoration Chapel has been closed temporarily. The Church itself is now open 24 hours a day, so that you can visit Our Lord and spend time in prayer. We encourage you to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Rosary and other prayers for the solution to our present situation and to pray the Stations of the Cross either at home or by yourself in church.

You may stop in church and pick up a bulletin any time at the entrances of the church or go to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church (Hallettsville) website:

<https://www.shcatholicchurch.org/>

Out of this crisis, some good can come. It makes us realize our dependence on God and the need to turn to God for His help. We have taken God out of so many places and put Him on the back burner until we need Him. God needs to be Number 1 in our lives all the time.

This situation will teach us to reach out to others and help those in need. So often everything is just about me and my needs and don't worry about others and how my actions may affect them. We are all God's children and need to be concerned about one another.

Hopefully this crisis will bring families closer together. Instead of going in all directions, everyone will try to stay together and work together and even study together. Even the politicians are starting to work together. God is trying to tell us something.

During this time, let us pray for patience and understanding. If we stay together as a family and pray, we will come through this with God's help.

Prayer Against Sickness

Oh God, who didst promise St. Roch by an angel that all who had recourse to him should have nothing to fear from pestilence and contagious maladies, grant that through his intercession we may be preserved from all dangers both of soul and body, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer in Time of Contagion

Glorious St. Roch, present in our favor thy efficacious prayers to the throne of the Divine Mercy, that we may not be affected by the scourge of contagion. Preserve us, by the intercession, from the pestilence of the body, and above all, obtain for us deliverance from the more grievous maladies of the soul.

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS

If you are having problems with your Church envelopes (not being delivered, cancelled, or new parishioner), please contact Phyllis at the Rectory. Cathedral Stewardship Envelopes has had some problems recently and information sent to them was lost. Thank you for your help in this matter.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

O Jesus, my Savior, Who art truly present in the Blessed Sacrament for the nourishment of our souls! Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, I humbly and earnestly beseech Thee to refresh me spiritually. I love Thee above all things and I desire to possess Thee within my soul. Come into my mind to illumine it with the light of Heaven, come into my heart to enkindle therein the fire of Thy love. Unite me so intimately with Thee, that it may be no more I that live, but Thou that liveth and reigneth in me forever. Amen

Coronavirus Prayer

In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

My Lord Jesus Christ, in your ministry you travelled through towns and villages curing every disease and illness. You commanded and the sick were healed. Please come to our assistance in the midst of the spread of the coronavirus globally.

Lord, healer of the sick, stay by our side at this difficult time of the spread of the disease. Be with those who have died and be with the families who are grieving. Be with those who have contracted the virus and grant them your healing.

Lord Jesus, we pray to you to be with our doctors, nurses and all medical researchers who are helping us look for a cure. Protect them and guide them with your wisdom so that they will find a cure for this disease.

Lord, we pray also for the leaders of all the countries, that they will be one in finding a solution to this illness.

Lord Jesus Christ, stay with us when we are at home, at work and travelling. Guide and protect us in the midst of the coronavirus spreading globally. Lord Jesus, heal us, hear us and give us your peace. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Even though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn't. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, "Come out!" He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating over what we left behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn't negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself tomorrow doesn't diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different, and one cannot be replaced by another. They don't cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives, and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent – Committed

I remember Jim Valvano, Jimmy V to many, saying the iconic words, "Don't give up; you can never give up." The former coach of the NC State men's basketball team was dying of cancer, yet he refused to throw in the towel and give in to his disease. His words exemplified the best of the human spirit we all share. Sometimes, living out those words seem much more difficult than saying them.

These words are also important for our faith life. The life Jesus calls us to is not easy. When working toward a life of greater generosity and surrender of all to God, we are prone to fall flat on our face many times. We are not called to this life only when we are strong. It is how we respond when times are the most difficult that truly defines us as disciples and stewards. The world may think we are down for the count, but rising again gives testimony that in Christ we are stronger.

Commitment takes a willingness to do the things needed to get stronger and build our spiritual muscles. We cannot expect to find success in the spiritual life unless we continue to work on our resolve and grow in our knowledge of the faith. A marathon runner would never be able to make it to the finish line unless they have trained and prepared in advance. We must work hard to stay the course and prepare for the race at hand. No matter what this life may have in store for us, we are called to not give up. God will never give up on us.
