From the Desk of Msgr. John

The Sacred Heart Fall Picnic is next weekend, September 5th. We need lots of help to make this big event a success. We need everyone's help in one way or another. This is a total parish effort. We need young, middle aged and old alike.

It is a difficult time with Covid on the rise again. We need to be extra careful. For the picnic we should take as many precautions as possible.

If we all do our part cautiously, we can have a great picnic. Let us ask God's protection and blessing as we come together as God's family.

As of September 3, we will once again have a second associate pastor. His name is Father Chris Korang and he is from Ghana.

He has recently spent one year in Shiner and before that one year in Flatonia. Let us welcome Father Chris as he joins our parish family.
