THE WORD OF GOD

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Readings: Ezekiel 47:1-2,8-9,12 Psalm 46:2-3,5-6,8-9 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11,16-17 John 2:13-22

The waters flowing from the temple, the dwelling place of the Lord, bring forth life and growth. Jesus is the living sanctuary and we his living body in the Spirit.

Today marks the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome, on land owned by the Laterani family, by Pope St. Sylvester I, 9 Nov. 324; honored as the Episcopal seat of the pope as bishop of Rome; according to an inscription which Pope Clement XII (reigned 1730-1740) placed on the façade, this basilica is the "mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world" ("omnium ecclesiarum Urbis et Orbis mater et caput"); residence of the popes from the 4th century until their moving to Avignon (1309); site of five ecumenical councils; Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646; beneath its high altar rests the remains of the small wooden table on which according to tradition, St. Peter celebrated mass; dedicated to the Savior, later to St. John the Baptist.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31 Psalm 128:1-5 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6 Matthew 25:14-30 or 25:14-15,19-21

They are happy who fear the Lord, who use their gifts and talents in the service of one another, especially the poor and the needy. They shall be known as children of the light, and will be ready for the Lord's return.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Readings: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17 Psalm 23:1-3,5-6 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28 Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord Jesus is our shepherd. At the end, at his coming, he will hand over the kingdom to his Father. He will "judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats", between those who have lived their lives for others, and those who have lived for themselves.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

If we remember that God loves us and that we can love others as He loves us, America can become a sign of peace for the world. From here, a sign of care for the weakest of the weak-the unborn child-must go out to the world to become a burning light of justice and peace in the world. Then, really, you will be true to what the founders of this country stood for. God bless you all. {St. Mother Teresa, page 99 in Where There Is Love, There Is God}

Please pray for the blessing of beneficial rainfall!

Heavenly Father, We believe that it is You Who created our world with all of its beauty and life. We believe that it is You Who put into place the systems of nature that sustain, nurture and renew this work of Your hands. We believe that it is You Who hears Your children when they call upon You. Hear then, this prayer which comes from a heart filled with confidence and trust. Grant to us and to all who seek it, the gift of a bountiful rain. Water our lands so that they may once again spring to life and reflect the beauty of Your creation. Fill our lakes and rivers with sufficient rain so that they may continue to provide life giving and refreshing water to all who depend upon it for their livelihood and well-being. Please do not let many more days pass without sending us this most needed blessing of rain. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Your Son Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever. Amen.

“What sign can you show us for doing this?” Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” But he was speaking about the temple of his Body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this.
